

LB Table

Features

Preferred by schools, hotels and conference centers around the world, the SICO® LB portable folding table is ideal as a head-table riser or for endless other functions, an especially smart choice when you simply need a mobile folding table for use with separate chairs. With its solid build and familiar rectangular design, the LB table easily rolls into use for food service, meetings, banquets, study halls, and testing rooms — while requiring only one-person to operate.

Choose colors to match your environment. With hundreds of impressive laminate top colors and patterns to choose from you can easily find the design that best fits your environment and reflects your style.
